

Zhen Ding Technology Holding Limited

Intellectual Property Management Plan (as of January 26, 2021)

Intellectual property rights have become a core element of market competitiveness, and the future competition in the world is intellectual property rights competition. Company is the main body of independent innovation, but also the main body of creation, management, application and protection of intellectual property rights, therefore, improving the intellectual property rights management of company is an important guarantee for enhancing the ability of independent creation.

The company highly respects the intellectual property rights of any third party in relative field, never adopts unauthorized intellectual property rights, actively researches and develops advanced technologies, and establishes independent core technologies. In addition to establishing long-term cooperation with world-class customers, grasping the future trends of the industry, actively investing in R&D resources and deploying core technologies, the company actively deploys intellectual property rights of core technology and strengthens the protection of its own technical results, and even adopts in intellectual property policies to ensure the company's competitive advantage in the industry.

Implementation status

The company implements pre-development technical investigations for new products and new manufacturing processes to avoid infringing on the intellectual property rights of others. In the new technology development stage, the company investigates market applications and advanced technology conditions, introduces risk assessments, manages and controls documents, equipment, and areas containing secret information through confidential management to avoid leakage risks, and Actively deploy the intellectual property rights of independent core key technology research and development results.

1. Management system results:

In order to comprehensively and effectively manage intellectual property such as patents and business secrets, the company has actively established an intellectual property management system. As of December 31, 2020, the "Intelligent Property Rights Management Manual", the "Intellectual Property Rights Application Procedures" and the "Intellectual Property Rights Policies and Investigation Operation Measures for Third-Party Manufacturers" have been established.

2. Intellectual property achievements:

The company is actively deploying patents layout, mainly covering regions such as Taiwan, the mainland, and the United States, to strengthen corporate competitive advantages. As of December 31, 2020, it has a total of 1057 valid patent rights, including 308 in Taiwan, 342 in the mainland, and 141 in the United States, and continues to file patent applications for the research and development results of advanced technologies, and the annual implementation plan and results of the Company will be reported to the Board of Directors on March 30, 2021.