The Company shall prepare electronic versions of the shareholders meeting agenda and supplemental meeting materials and upload them to the MOPS at least 21 days before the date of the annual shareholders meeting or at least 15 days before the date of the special shareholders meeting. The Company shall have the Meeting Handbook and supplementary information for the shareholders' meeting ready for access by shareholders 15 days prior to the shareholders' meeting. The documents shall also be displayed in the Company and in the Company's stock affairs agent and distributed at the shareholders' meeting.

On the day of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Company shall provide the aforementioned Meeting Handbook and supplementary meeting materials to the shareholders in the following ways:

(I) When convening a physical Shareholders' Meeting, the materials shall be distributed during the meeting.

(II) When convening a video-assisted shareholders' meeting, the materials shall be distributed during the meeting and the electronic files shall be uploaded to the video conference platform.

(III) When convening a video shareholders' meeting, the electronic files of the materials shall be uploaded to the video conference platform.

- III. The reasons for convening a shareholders meeting shall be specified in the meeting notice and public announcement. With the consent of the addressee, the meeting notice may be given in electronic form.
- IV. Election or dismissal of directors (including independent directors), amendments to the Articles of Association, the dissolution, merger, or split-up of the corporation, lease of all operations or any other important matters as provided in the laws and regulations of R.O.C., shall be set out in the notice of the reasons for convening the shareholders meeting. None of the above matters may be raised by an extraordinary motion.
- V. Shareholders holding more than 1% of the Company's outstanding shares are entitled to propose, in writing, agenda items for discussion in general shareholders meetings. Provided, however, only one agenda item may be proposed; any further proposals will be excluded from discussion. The board of directors may disregard shareholders' proposals if the proposed agenda item involve any of the circumstances listed in Article 172-1, Paragraph 4 of the Company Act of the Republic of China.
- VI. Prior to the book closure date before a general shareholders meeting is held, the Company shall publicly announce that it will receive shareholder proposals, and the location and time period for their submission; the period for submission of shareholder proposals may not be less than 10 days.
- VII. Shareholder-submitted proposals are limited to 300 words, and no proposal containing more than 300 words will be included in the meeting agenda. Shareholders who have successfully proposed agenda items shall attend the general meeting of shareholders in person or through proxy attendance and participate in the discussion.
- VIII. The Company shall notify the proposing shareholders of the outcome of their proposed agenda items before the date the meeting notice is sent. Meanwhile, agenda items that satisfy the conditions listed in this Article shall be included as part of the meeting notice. During the shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons why certain proposed agenda items are excluded from discussion.

Article 3-1 Matters to be included in the meeting notice for Shareholders' Meetings held through video conferencing

When the Company convenes a video shareholders' meeting, the shareholders' meeting convening announcement shall include the following items:

- I. Participation in a video meeting by shareholders and methods for exercising their voting rights.
- II. Troubleshooting methods for problems to the video conference platform or participation through video caused by natural disasters, incidents, or other force majeure, which shall at least include the following:

 - (II) Shareholders who have not registered to participate in the original shareholders' meeting by video may not participate in the postponed or reconvened meeting.
 - (III) When the Company convenes a video-assisted shareholders' meeting and the reconvened video conference cannot be conducted, if the total number of shares present reaches the statutory quota for the shareholders' meeting after the number of shares present at the shareholders' meeting by video is deducted, the shareholders' meeting shall be continued. The shares of shareholders in attendance through video shall be included in the total number of shares in attendance. The shareholders shall be deemed to have abstained from voting in all motions of the shareholders' meeting.
 - (IV) Handling method in the event that results have been declared for all motions and no extraordinary motions have been proposed.
- III. A video shareholders' meeting shall be held and appropriate alternatives shall be stated for shareholders who may have difficulty attending the shareholders' meeting through video.

Article 4 Proxy Form

- I. For each shareholders meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy to attend the meeting by providing the proxy form issued by the Company and stating the scope of the proxy's authorization.
- II. A shareholder may only execute one proxy and appoint one agent only, which shall be delivered to the Company at least five days prior to the shareholders meeting. If multiple proxies are submitted, the first to be delivered shall prevail. However, exception shall be granted if the shareholder issues a statement to withdraw the previous proxy.

- III. After a proxy form has been delivered to the Company, if the shareholder intends to attend the meeting in person or to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronically, a written notice of proxy cancellation shall be submitted to the Company before 2 business days before the meeting date. If the cancellation notice is submitted after that time, votes cast at the meeting by the proxy shall prevail.
- IV. Once the proxy has been delivered to the Company and the shareholder wishes to attend the meeting through video call, the concerned shareholder should notify the Company in writing at least two days prior to the shareholders' meeting to rescind the notice for proxy. If the cancellation notice is submitted after that time, votes cast at the meeting by the proxy shall prevail.

Article 5 Principles determining the time and place of a shareholders meeting

The venue for a shareholders meeting shall be the premises of the Company, or a place easily accessible to shareholders and suitable for a shareholders meeting. The meeting may begin no earlier than 9 a.m. and no later than 3 p.m. Full consideration shall be given to the opinions of the independent directors with respect to the place and time of the meeting.

The restrictions on the place of the meeting shall not apply when the Company convenes a virtual-only shareholders' meeting.

Article 6 Preparation of documents such as the attendance book and attendance book for proxy

- I. The Company shall specify in its shareholders meeting notices the time during which attendance registrations for shareholders, solicitors and proxies (collectively "shareholders") will be accepted, the place to register for attendance, and other matters for attention.
- II. The time during which shareholder attendance registrations will be accepted, as stated in the preceding paragraph, shall be at least 30 minutes prior to the time the meeting commences. The place at which attendance registration is accepted shall be clearly marked and a sufficient number of suitable personnel shall be assigned to handle the registration. For virtual shareholders' meetings, shareholders may begin to register on the virtual meeting platform 30 minutes before the meeting starts. Shareholders completing registration will be deemed as attend the shareholders' meeting in person.
- III. Shareholders shall attend shareholders' meetings based on attendance cards, sign-in cards, or other certificates of attendance. The Company may not arbitrarily add requirements for other documents beyond those showing eligibility to attend presented by shareholders.

- IV. The Company shall furnish the attending shareholders with an attendance book to sign, or attending shareholders may hand in a sign-in card in lieu of signing in.
- V. The Company shall distribute the Meeting Handbook, annual report, attendance card, speech note, voting ballot and other meeting materials to the shareholders attending the meeting. Shareholders shall also be given election ballots where election of directors and independent directors is to take place.
- VI. When a government or juristic person is a shareholder, they may assign more than one representative to attend the meeting. A juristic person may assign only one proxy representative to attend the meeting on its behalf.
- VII. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, shareholders who wish to attend by video shall re-register with the Company at least two days prior to the meeting date. The Company shall upload the meeting agenda book, annual report and other meeting materials to the virtual meeting platform at least 30 minutes before the meeting starts, and keep this information disclosed until the end of the meeting.

Article 7 Chairperson and Acting as the Agent

- I. Shareholders' meetings that are convened by the chairperson shall be chaired by the chairperson. If the chairperson is unable to perform such duties due to leave of absence or any reason, the vice chairperson shall act on the chairperson's behalf. If the vice chairperson is also unavailable or is non-existent, the chairperson may appoint a standing director act on his behalf. If there are no managing directors, one of the directors shall be appointed to act as chair. Where the chairperson does not make such a designation, the managing directors or the directors shall select from among themselves one person to serve as chair.
- II. If the Managing Director or Director is appointed as Chair, the individual must have an understanding of the company's financial and business status as well as be employed for a duration of more than 6 months. he same shall be true for a representative of a juristic person director that serves as chair.
- III. It is advisable that shareholders' meetings convened by the Board of Directors be chaired by the chairperson of the Board in person and attended by a majority of the directors, at least one independent director in person, and at least one member of each functional committee on behalf of the committee. The attendance shall be recorded in the shareholders' meeting minutes.

- IV. For shareholders' meetings convened by any authorized party other than the Board of Directors, the convener will act as the meeting chairperson. If there are two or more conveners at the same time, one shall be appointed from among them to chair the meeting.
- V. The Company may summon its lawyers, certified public accountants, and any relevant personnel to be present at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 8 Documentation of a shareholders meeting by audio or video

- I. The Company, beginning from the time it accepts shareholder attendance registrations, shall make an uninterrupted audio and video recording of the registration procedure, the proceedings of the shareholders meeting, and the voting and vote counting procedures.
- II. The recorded materials mentioned the preceding paragraph shall be retained for at least 1 year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the ballots shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.
- III. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company shall keep records of the shareholders' registration, enrollment, check-in, questions and voting and the Company's vote counting results, and shall continuously and uninterruptedly record and videotape the entire video conference.
- IV. The information and audio and video recording in the preceding paragraph shall be properly kept by the Company during the entirety of its existence, and copies of the audio and video recording shall be provided to and kept by the party appointed to handle matters of the virtual meeting.
- V. In case of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company is advised to audio and video record the back-end operation interface of the virtual meeting platform.

Article 9 Shareholders' Meeting Attendance and Voting

- I. Attendance at shareholders' meetings shall be calculated based on numbers of shares. The number of shares in attendance shall be calculated according to the shares indicated by the attendance book and sign-in cards and the video conference platform, plus the number of shares whose voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronically.
- II. The chair shall call the meeting to order at the appointed meeting time, and simultaneously announce information in relation to the number of shares that are not entitled to vote and the number of shares in attendance. However, when the attending shareholders do not represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may announce a postponement, provided that no more than two such postponements, for a combined total of no more than 1 hour, may be made. If the quorum is not met after two postponements and the attending shareholders still represent less than one third of the total number of issued shares, the chair shall declare the meeting adjourned. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company shall also declare the meeting adjourned on the virtual meeting platform.

- III. If the quorum is not met after two postponements as referred to in the preceding paragraph, but the attending shareholders represent one third or more of the total number of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be adopted pursuant to Article 175, paragraph 1 of the Company Act; all shareholders shall be notified of the tentative resolution and another shareholders meeting shall be convened within 1 month. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, shareholders intending to attend the meeting online shall re-register to the Company in accordance with Article 6.
- IV. When, prior to conclusion of the meeting, the attending shareholders represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may resubmit the tentative resolution for a vote by the shareholders meeting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 10 Convening and Agenda of Shareholders' Meeting

- I. If the shareholders' meeting is convened by the board of directors, the board of directors shall determine the meeting agenda. Meeting agenda (including extraordinary motions and amendments to the original agendas) shall be voted by poll. The meeting shall proceed in the order set by the agenda, which may not be changed without a resolution of the shareholders' meeting.
- II. The above rule also applies if the shareholders' meeting is convened by any authorized party other than the Board of Directors.
- III. The chairperson may not declare the meeting adjourned prior to completion of deliberation on the meeting agenda of the preceding two paragraphs (including extraordinary motions), except by a resolution of the shareholders meeting. If the chairperson violates the meeting policy by dismissing the meeting when it is not allowed to do so, other shareholders of the board shall immediately assist the attending shareholders to elect another chairperson with the support of more than half of voting rights represented and continue the meeting.
- IV. The Chairman must allow adequate time to explain and discuss the various agenda items, amendments or special motions proposed during the meeting. The Chairman may announce to discontinue further discussion if the issue in question is considered to have been sufficiently discussed, proceed with the voting, and arrange sufficient time to vote.

Article 11 Shareholder's Speech

- I. Shareholders who wish to speak during the meeting must produce an opinion slip detailing the topics and the shareholder's account number (or the attendance ID serial). The order of shareholders' comments shall be determined by the chairperson.
- II. A shareholder in attendance who has submitted a speaker's slip but does not actually speak shall be deemed to have not spoken. If the contents of the statement do not conform to the contents of the speech note, the contents of the statement shall prevail. Each shareholder shall speak no more than twice, for five minutes each, on the same agenda item unless otherwise agreed by the chairperson. The chairperson may stop shareholders from speaking if they violate the rules or speak outside the agenda item under discussion.
- III. While a shareholder is speaking, other shareholders shall not speak simultaneously or interfere in any way unless agreed by the chairperson and the person speaking. Any violators shall be restrained by the chairperson.
- IV. In the event a juristic person assigns two or more representatives to attend the shareholders' meeting, only one of the representatives may speak on the same proposal.
- V. After the shareholder has finished speaking, the chairperson may answer to the shareholder's queries personally or appoint any relevant personnel to do so.
- VI. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, shareholders participating by video may ask questions by text on the video conference platform after the chairman announces the commencement of the meeting and before the meeting is adjourned. The maximum number of questions for each motion is two, and each question is limited to 200 words. The provisions in Paragraph 1 to Paragraph 5 shall not apply.

Article 12 Calculation of voting shares

- I. Voting at a shareholders meeting shall be calculated based the number of shares.
- II. The number of shareholder's shares without voting rights are not calculated in the total number of outstanding shares for resolutions in the shareholders' meeting.
- III. When a shareholder is an interested party in relation to an agenda item, and there is the likelihood that such a relationship would prejudice the interests of the Company, that shareholder may not vote on that item, and may not exercise voting rights as proxy for any other shareholder.
- IV. The number of shares held by shareholders who are not permitted to vote shall be excluded from the total voting rights represented in the meeting.

- V. With the exception of trust enterprises or stock affairs agencies approved by the competent securities authority, the votes that may be cast by one proxy representing two or more shareholders shall not exceed three percent of the votes of total shares issued; any votes in excess of that limit shall not be counted.

Article 13 Exercise of voting rights

- I. Each share of a shareholder represents one vote, except when the shares are restricted shares or are deemed non-voting shares under Paragraph 2, Article 179 of the Company Act.
- II. Voting rights are exercised electronically or in writing by shareholders in a Shareholders' Meeting convened by the Company. When voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronic means, the method of exercise shall be specified in the shareholders meeting notice. A shareholder exercising voting rights by correspondence or electronic means will be deemed to have attended the meeting in person. but to have waived his/her rights with respect to the extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals of that meeting.
- III. A shareholder intending to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronic means under the preceding paragraph shall deliver a written declaration of intent to the Company before 5 days before the date of the shareholders meeting. When duplicate declarations of intent are delivered, the one received earliest shall prevail, This is not applicable for manifestation of intentions prior to statement revocation.
- IV. After a shareholder has exercised voting rights by correspondence or electronic means, in the event the shareholder intends to attend the shareholders meeting in person or through video conferencing, a written declaration of intent to retract the voting rights already exercised under the preceding paragraph shall be made known to the Company, by the same means by which the voting rights were exercised, at least 2 business days before the date of the shareholders meeting. If the notice of retraction is submitted after that time, the voting rights already exercised by correspondence or electronic means shall prevail. When a shareholder has exercised voting rights both by correspondence or electronic means and by appointing a proxy to attend a shareholders meeting, the voting rights exercised by the proxy in the meeting shall prevail.
- V. Except as otherwise provided in the Company Act and in the Company's articles of incorporation, the passage of a proposal shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders. At the time of a vote, for each proposal, the chair or a person designated by the chair shall first announce the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders, followed by a poll of the shareholders. After the conclusion of the meeting, on the same day it is held, the results for each proposal, based on the numbers of votes for and against and the number of abstentions, shall be entered into the MOPS.

- VI. If the Chair consulted all the shareholders present at the meeting, the proposal is deemed to be passed. If there is dissent, the motion shall be voted on by the same basis as the voting method.
- VII. When there is an amendment or alternative to a proposal, the chairperson shall present the amended or alternative proposal together with the original proposal and decide the order in which they will be put to a vote. If any resolution is passed, all other proposals shall be deemed rejected, and no further voting is necessary.
- VIII. Vote monitoring and counting personnel for the voting on a proposal shall be appointed by the chair, provided that all monitoring personnel shall be shareholders of the Company.
- IX. Vote counting for shareholders meeting proposals or elections shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on-site at the meeting, and a record made of the vote.
- X. When the Company convenes a virtual shareholders' meeting, after the chairperson declares the meeting open, shareholders attending the meeting online shall cast votes on proposals and elections on the virtual meeting platform before the chairperson announces the voting session ends or will be deemed abstained from voting.
- XI. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, after the chairman announces the close of the voting, the chairman shall conduct a one-time count of the votes and announce the voting and election results.
- XII. When the Company convenes a video-assisted shareholders meeting, shareholders who have registered to attend the shareholders' meeting through video according to Article 6 but wish to physically attend the shareholders' meeting shall cancel the registration using the same method of registration two days prior to the shareholders' meeting. Shareholders who miss the cancellation deadline may only attend the shareholders' meeting through video.
- XIII. Shareholders who exercise their voting rights in writing or electronically without revoking their intentions, and participate in the shareholders' meeting through video shall not exercise their voting rights on the original motion, propose amendments to the motion, or exercise their voting rights on the amendments to the motion, except for extraordinary motions.

- I. The election of directors (including independent directors) at a shareholders meeting shall be held in accordance with the applicable election and appointment rules adopted by the Company and the voting results shall be announced on-site immediately, including the names of those elected as directors and supervisors and the numbers of votes with which they were elected and the names of those who were not elected and the number of votes they received.
- II. The ballots for the election referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be sealed with the signatures of the monitoring personnel and kept in proper custody for at least 1 year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the ballots shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

Article 15 Minutes of Shareholders' Meetings

- I. The shareholders' meeting's resolutions should be included in meeting minutes and either signed or stamped with the Chairperson's chop; the meeting minutes shall be distributed to all shareholders within 20 days of the meeting. The preparation and distribution of meeting minutes may be disseminated through electronic means.
- II. The Company may distribute the meeting minutes of the preceding paragraph by means of a public announcement made through the MOPS.
- III. The meeting minutes shall detail the date and venue of the meeting, the Chairman's name, the method of resolution, and the proceeding and voting results of various meeting agenda items (including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes). For election of directors, the number of votes of each candidate shall be disclosed. These minutes must be retained for as long as the company is in existence.
- IV. If the aforementioned method of resolution is consulted by the Chairperson, the shareholders' meeting shall be consulted. If a shareholder has no objection to the proposal, the Company shall record the "Chairperson consulted all the shareholders present, and they shall record the voting method and the percentage of voting resolved and approved." However, the shareholders' meeting shall record the voting method and the percentage of votes when there is dissent against the motion.
- V. For shareholders' meetings convened through video, apart from the matters to be recorded listed above, the meeting minutes shall record the start and end time of the shareholders' meeting, the method of convening the meeting, the names of the chairperson and recorder, and the handling and method of natural disasters, incidents or other force majeure that have affected the video conference platform or participation through video.
- VI. When the Company convenes a video shareholders' meeting, apart from the matters stated above, it shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Appropriate alternatives shall be stated for shareholders who may have difficulty attending the shareholders' meeting through video.

Article 16 Public disclosure

- I. During the shareholders' meeting, the Company shall publish information in the meeting regarding the number of shares acquired by acquirers, the number of shares represented by proxies, and the number of shares of shareholders in attendance in writing or electronically using the prescribed format. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company shall upload the above meeting materials to the virtual meeting platform at least 30 minutes before the meeting starts, and keep this information disclosed until the end of the meeting.
- II. When the Company convenes a video shareholders' meeting, the total number of shareholders in attendance shall be disclosed on the video conference platform when the meeting is called to order. If the total number of shares of shareholders in attendance and the total voting rights are counted during the meeting, the same shall apply.
- III. If matters put to a resolution at a shareholders meeting constitute material information under applicable laws or regulations or under Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation regulations, the Company shall upload the content of such resolution to the MOPS within the prescribed time period.

Article 17 Staff handling affairs of the shareholders' meeting

- I. The meeting personnel handling the General Shareholders' Meeting shall bear identification cards or armbands.
- II. The chairperson may instruct marshals or security staff to help maintain order in the meeting. When proctors or security personnel help maintain order at the meeting place, they shall wear an identification card or armband bearing the word "Proctor."
- III. The chairperson may stop anyone who attempts to speak using speaker equipment not provided by the Company.
- IV. The chairperson may instruct marshals or security staff to remove shareholders who continue to violate the meeting rules despite being warned by the chairperson.

Article 18 Recess and resumption of a shareholders meeting

- I. The chairperson may put the meeting in recess at appropriate times. In the occurrence of force majeure events, the chairperson may suspend the meeting temporarily and resume at another time.
- II. If the meeting venue is no longer available for continued use and not all of the items (including extraordinary motions) on the meeting agenda have been addressed, the shareholders meeting may adopt a resolution to resume the meeting at another venue.

- III. A resolution may be adopted at a shareholders meeting to defer or resume the meeting within 5 days in accordance with Article 182 of the Company Act.

Article 19 Information disclosure during video meetings

When the shareholders' meeting is held through video conferencing, the Company shall disclose the voting results and election results on the shareholders' meeting video conference platform immediately after voting ends, and the information shall be available for at least 15 minutes after the Chairperson adjourns the meeting.

Article 20 Location of the chairperson and secretary of the virtual shareholders' meeting

When the Company convenes a video shareholders meeting, the Chairperson and recording personnel shall be in the same location in the country. The Chairperson shall announce the address of the location during the meeting.

Article 21 Handling of loss of signal

- I. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Company may offer a simple connection test to shareholders prior to the meeting, and provide relevant real-time services before and during the meeting to help resolve communication technical issues.
- II. In the event of a virtual shareholders' meeting, the Chairperson shall announce the matters that do not require postponement or reconvention according to the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies in Taiwan when announcing the meeting. If, prior to the close of the meeting announced by the chairman, there is an impediment to participation on the video conference platform or by video for a period of 30 minutes or more due to a natural disaster, incident or other force majeure, the meeting shall be postponed for not more than, or reconvened within, five days. The provisions of Article 182 of Taiwan's Company Act shall not apply.
- III. For a meeting to be postponed or resumed as described in the preceding paragraph, shareholders who have not registered to participate in the affected shareholders' meeting online shall not attend the postponed or resumed session.
- IV. For a meeting to be postponed or resumed under the second paragraph, the number of shares represented by, and voting rights and election rights exercised by the shareholders who have registered to participate in the affected shareholders' meeting and have successfully signed in the meeting, but do not attend the postpone or resumed session, at the affected shareholders' meeting, shall be counted towards the total number of shares, number of voting rights and number of election rights represented at the postponed or resumed session.
- V. During a postponed or resumed session of a shareholders' meeting held under the second paragraph, no further discussion or resolution is required for proposals for which votes have been cast and counted and results have been announced, or list of elected directors and supervisors.

- VI. When the Company convenes a hybrid shareholders' meeting, and the virtual meeting cannot continue as described in second paragraph, if the total number of shares represented at the meeting, after deducting those represented by shareholders attending the virtual shareholders' meeting online, still meets the minimum legal requirement for a shareholder meeting, then the shareholders' meeting shall continue, and not postponement or resumption thereof under the second paragraph is required.
- VII. Under the circumstances where a meeting should continue as in the preceding paragraph, the shares represented by shareholders attending the virtual meeting online shall be counted towards the total number of shares represented by shareholders present at the meeting, provided these shareholders shall be deemed abstaining from voting on all proposals on meeting agenda of that shareholders' meeting.
- VIII. When postponing or resuming a meeting according to the second paragraph, the Company shall handle the preparatory work based on the date of the original shareholders' meeting in accordance with the laws and regulations in the location of the Company's listing.
- IX. During the period stated in the latter half of Article 12 and Paragraph 3 of Article 13 of the Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of Public in Taiwan, Paragraph 2, Article 44-5, Article 44-15, and Paragraph 1, Article 44-17 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies, the Company shall handle the matters according to the date of the shareholders' meeting postponed or reconvened according to Paragraph 1.
